It's the story of a father and son and redemption. I played ball when I was younger, so the sports stats didn't throw me at all and won't detract from the story for non sports readers. They really set the scene for the emotional strings that Grisham deftly pulls as he carefully builds the story of Calico Joe, young Paul and his ... ?Calico Joe (Unabridged) on Apple Books A well told story I really enjoyed the way that the story moved between present day and the 70s baseball of Calico Joe's days. This book took me back to a time that I could closely relate to, and the way that it wove real teams and characters into this beautiful story, brought some moisture to my eyes on a couple of occasions.
