What might ministering without Christ-like love look like? Going through the motions; Doesn't address peoples needs; Spirit not involved; Not effective; What is the effect on others when we minister with Christ-like love. Sister Bingham: After all is said and done, true ministering is accomplished one by one with love as the motivation. The value and merit and wonder of sincere ministering is that it truly changes lives! When our hearts are open and willing to love and include, encourage ... Quotes from Come Follow Me, June 17-23 | Spiritual Crusade But charity is the pure love of Christ, and it endureth forever ; and whoso is found possessed of it at the last day, it shall be well with him. 9 And the world, because of their iniquity, shall judge him to be a thing of naught; wherefore they scourge him, and he suffereth it; and they smite him, and he suffereth it. How Do I Develop Christlike Attributes? - media.ldscdn.org Christ is an invitation to follow His example and to become like Him, which can only hap- pen through the Atonement of Jesus Christ (see Mosiah 3:19). Some chapters in Preach My Gospel focus on what you need to do as a missionary—how "The Pure Love of Christ": The Divine Precept of Charity ... It is, however, my intent to provide a practical illustration of how easy it is for the pure love of Christ to be diluted by members and thus forfeit its promised power. Consider another subtle dilution to understand the pure love of Christ. It is not uncommon for members to define charity as "Christlike" love.
