Mary Beard appraises us of the paucity of documentation for some periods and issues of bias, invention and a predilection for anecdote of some classical authors. Confronting the classics : traditions, adventures, and ... Confronting the classics : traditions, adventures, and innovations by Beard, Mary, 1955- Project MUSE - Confronting the Classics: Traditions ... Mary Beard's Confronting the Classics: Traditions, Adventures, and Innovations is a collection of reviews that have been adapted and updated for publication under one title with the aim of showing how the discipline has evolved and still influences Western culture. There are five sections, ranging from ancient Greece through Rome, in which Beard engages with a number of important secondary works. The essays consistently engage problems of transmission and evaluation and aim to explore ...
