A2 French Grammar Lessons - Low Intermediate Lawless French French grammar is sometimes trumped by pronunciation, as in the case of euphonic adjectives. Because French does not like the hiatus created when a word ending with a vowel precedes a word that begins with a vowel or mute h, a few adjectives change their spelling—and thus their pronunciation—for purely euphonic reasons. Free grammar course and exercises - Intermediate level A2 Grammar is a sweet song, Eric Orsenna. Intermediate A2: I can use simple structures correctly, but still I systematically make elementary mistakes, for example, the confusion of time and forgetting to mark agreement. However, the general sense is clear French A Level grammar checklists by anyholland | Teaching ... a student checklist for both AS and A2 French grammar based on AQA specification but can also be used for other boards.
