The Massive Volume 1: Black Pacific (2013) - booksminority.net review 1: Brian Wood ROCKS at the top of his game and this series is deeply, thoroughly original. It looks like a straight-up disaster thriller except for /every single disaster/ you can get your head around has happened in it, AND he refers to contemporary disasters like the Deepwater Horizon and the Fukushima reactor meltdown. The story is ... The Massive, Vol. 1: Black Pacific (2013) - booksminority.net review 1: Very smart and thought-provoking. Also one of the best post-apocalyptic futures I've ever seen. Also one of the best post-apocalyptic futures I've ever seen. No single disaster, but rather a host of small ones all happening in close proximity have pushed civilization to the brink in some parts of the world.
