PETRONA: Book review: Truth by Peter Temple A very happy new year to readers of Petrona. What better way to start the year than with a review of a book by a master, Peter Temple? His long-awaited novel Truth is published in the UK this month, and I'm extremely grateful to the unfailingly kind publisher, Quercus, for my copy of this novel. Without further ado, here is my review. Truth by ... Truth, By Peter Temple | The Independent Readers like nothing better than to proselytise to friends about a little-known author they have discovered. Publishers, however, have no time for such concepts as "deserving to be better known". Truth by Peter Temple | Book review | Books | The Guardian Truth might seem, at first, a more promising title for a treatise on epistemology than a hardboiled detective story, so grand is the project that it appears to map out. Yet by the end of Peter ...
